This is a class action in which at least one member of the class of the Plaintiff is a citizen of a state different from that of the Defendant and the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of $5,000,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs.

6. Plaintiffs seek to represent a class and pursue a class recovery under . See 28 USC 1332(d)(1)(B) (defining “class action” as “any civil action filed under rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or similar State statute...authorizing an action to be brought by one or more representative persons as a class action.”)

7. The diversity requirement of Section 1332(d)(2), as amended by the Class Action Fairness Act, is satisfied when “any member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a State different from any defendant” Id. 1332(d)(2)(A).

8. All defendants other than Shapiro & Diaz have a principal places of business and citizenship in states other than New Jersey.

9. The Plaintiffs are citizens of the State of New Jersey.

10. The proposed class will not be limited to citizens from the state of Nevada.

The Plaintiff proposes a national class as 1) Individuals who have had FHA insured home loans held or serviced by the Defendant, Washington Mutual, FSB from sixteen years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification, 2) individuals who received a payoff or reinstatement statement from the Defendant whose home loan was in default, 3) individuals who were charged attorneys fees and/or other costs which were in excess of the amount actually incurred and and/or in excess of the amount allowed by FHA regulation.

11. A subclass exists for claims from six years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification which includes claims under the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act and the New Jersey Truth-In-Consumer Contracts, Warranty and Notice Act.

12. The class damages sought by the Plaintiffs are to be aggregated for purposes of calculating the amount in controversy. The Plaintiff will be seeking actual damages, treble damages and punitive damages plus attorneys fees and costs of suit. The Plaintiffs anticipate that the damages will average $5000.00 per class member.

13. The Defendant has over 5000 foreclosures pending since 2006 in New Jersey alone. The class size is anticipated to be in excess of 3000 members. The total aggregated damages would be at least $15,000,000.00.

23. The Defendants then dismissed the foreclosure action with prejudice and discharged the mortgage and Lis Pendens.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS:
DEFENDANT'S WRONGFUL CONDUCT

24. At all times relevant hereto, COUNTRYWIDE, WAMU and Shapiro have engaged in a uniform scheme and course of conduct to inflate their profits by charging and collecting various fees not authorized by the loan documents or applicable law. The components of this scheme involve common tactics in which the Defendants have been overcharging defaulting borrowers of residential mortgages in the following manner, including but not limited to:

- a) they charged attorneys fees and costs in excess of those actually incurred;
- b) costs of suit charged to the Plaintiff and class was excessive in violation of statute and court rule; Specifically, R 4:42-10 limits the taxable costs for searches at a minimum of $75 to 1% of the amount due but in no case more than $500. In the instant case the amount allowed would be $500.

- c) recording fees charged were excessive of the actual fee; i.e. to file and discharge a lis pendens the fee was $60.00
- d) Overcharging for the service of process. The statutes and court rules limit the reimbursement to a maximum of $35 per defendant.
- e) Charging the borrower for obtaining a certificate of regularity which is not a fee which can be charged to a borrower.
- f) FHA regulations limit attorneys fees see 24 CFR 203.552(B) to a maximum of $1350 in New Jersey.
- g) In addition the Plaintiffs contend that the defendants overcharged the class as follows:
 - i. over charging of sheriff's commissions by failing to properly credit deposits;
 - ii. charging excessive interest by continuing to charge the contract rate after a judgment of foreclosure was entered when entitled to the judgment interest rate;

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

- 25. The Plaintiffs repeat each and every previous allegation and incorporates them by reference herein as if they were set forth fully herein.
- 26. The Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of all persons similarly situated and pursuant to Fed. R.Civ.P. 23 as a class action on behalf of a statewide class of persons as defined below.

27. The claims of the named class representative and the absent class members have a common origin and share a common basis. Their claims originate from the same illegal, fraudulent, unconscionable and/or negligent business practices of the Defendants, and the Defendants act in the same way toward the Individual Plaintiffs and the members of the class. As such, the individual Plaintiffs have been a victim of the unconscionable business practices.

28. The actions of the Defendants are not isolated but represent a general and consistent business practice.

29. The actions of the Defendants have affected similarly situated individuals throughout the State of New Jersey.

30. The Plaintiffs propose a national class as 1) Individuals who have had FHA home loans held or serviced by the Defendant, COUNTRYWIDE and WAMU from sixteen years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification; and 2) who received a payoff or reinstatement statement from the Defendant whose home loan was in default; 3)and who were charged attorneys fees and/or other costs which were in excess of the amount actually incurred and/or in excess of the amount allowed by FHA regulation.

31. The Plaintiffs propose a class as 1) Individuals who have had home loans held or serviced by the Defendant, COUNTRYWIDE in the State of New Jersey from sixteen years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification; and 2) who received a payoff or reinstatement statement from the Defendant whose home loan was in default; 3)and who were charged attorneys fees and/or other costs which were in excess of the amount actually incurred and/or in excess of the amount allowed by law.

a) A subclass exists for claims from six years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification which includes claims under the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act and New Jersey Truth-In-Consumer Contracts, Warranty and Notice Act.

31. The Plaintiffs propose a class as 1) Individuals who have had home loans held or serviced by the Defendant, WAMU in the State of New Jersey from sixteen years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification; and 2) who received a payoff or reinstatement statement from the Defendant whose home loan was in default; 3)and who were charged attorneys fees and/or other costs which were in excess of the amount actually incurred and/or in excess of the amount allowed by law.

a) A subclass exists for claims from six years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification which includes claims under the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act and New Jersey Truth-In-Consumer Contracts, Warranty and Notice Act.

32. The Plaintiffs propose a class as 1) Individuals who have had home loans which turned over to Shapiro for foreclosure proceedings in the State of New Jersey from six years prior to the filing of the complaint through the date of class certification; and 2) who received a payoff or reinstatement statement from the Defendant whose home loan was in default; 3) and who were charged attorneys fees and/or other costs which were in excess of the amount actually incurred and/or in excess of the amount allowed by law.

33. The proposed class representatives state a claim upon which relief can be granted that is typical of the claims of absent class members. If brought and prosecuted individually, the claims of each class member would necessarily require proof of the same material and substantive facts, rely upon the same remedial theories, and seek the same relief.

34. The claims and remedial theories pursued by the named class representatives are sufficiently aligned with the interests of absent class members to ensure that the individual claims of the class will be prosecuted with diligence and care by the individual Plaintiffs as class representative.

35. The class members are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. It is believed and therefore averred that there are over 1000 mortgages within each category of claims identified above and in each Count of this Complaint.

36. The claims of the Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of each of the class members, and the Plaintiffs have no claim antagonistic to class members. They are aware that they cannot settle this action without Court approval. They have and will continue to vigorously pursue the class member claims.

37. The Representative Plaintiffs, DAVID AND MARIANNE RIVERA will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class members. The Plaintiffs are committed to the vigorous representation of the class members and have retained competent counsel experienced in the prosecution of complex and class action litigation. Counsel have agreed to advance the costs of the litigation contingent upon the outcome.

38. WAMU, COUNTRYWIDE and Shapiro have all acted on grounds generally applicable to the class members, thereby justifying relief against Defendants, WAMU, COUNTRYWIDE and Shapiro for the class members as whole.

39. A class action is superior to other methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy because prosecution of separate actions by mortgagors creates a high risk of inconsistent and varying adjudications, with inconsistent and varying results. Furthermore, as the damages suffered by many individual class members may be relatively small in relation to the costs of litigation, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it difficult, if not impossible, for class members to individually redress the wrongs done to them. Many, if not most, of the class members are unaware that claims exist against WAMU, COUNTRYWIDE and Shapiro. There will be no unusual difficulty in the management of this class action.

40. The named individual Plaintiffs are willing and prepared to serve the Court and proposed class in a representative capacity with all of the obligations and duties material thereto. The individual Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class and have no interests adverse to, or which directly and irrevocably conflict with, the interests of the other class members.

41. The self-interest of the named class representatives are co-extensive with and not antagonistic to those of the absent class members. The proposed representatives will undertake to well and truly protect the interests of the absent class members.

42. Questions of fact and law common to the class that predominate include but are not limited to:

I. Did WAMU, and COUNTRYWIDE breach their contractual obligations to the class members by having imposed or collected amounts that are not due and owing by contract or applicable law including interest, default related fees, costs, attorneys fees and charges?

II. Did WAMU, COUNTRYWIDE and Shapiro engage in unfair and/or deceptive acts and practices with respect to each Class member that includes one or more of the following:

- d. Engaging in conduct that violates state and federal consumer protection laws; and
- e. Harassing or otherwise treating customers unfairly and without regard to obligations of good faith and fair dealing.

V. Did WAMU, COUNTRYWIDE and Shapiro represent to the Plaintiffs that they are entitled to collect various loan charges that were not legally due and owing?
